NOTE
Please note that the land available topographic data has been used to compile the Digital Terrain Model (DTM) data from preceding year GIS data. In some areas, a digital data layer was added manually through an interpretative process, so these shaded areas may not show the exact accuracy of the flood depth and flood prone inundation in long term flood areas.